BOREPAPER

ABOUT

Boremon has been created by our team as a hyped stealth launch with heavy marketing scheduled in place on the BSC network.

We have a very experienced team across ETH and. Our team is part of some huge projects and we have vast experience in the space with launches and big market cap tokens.

The backstory of Boremon is that it was originally created as a high quality NFT for the Pixelmon project. The by-product did not meet the community's standards. The $BOREMON team aims to leverage it's in-house animation and design team to create high quality animated NFTS that can be staked to earn $BNB.

Together with our community, we will create a new trend.

Let's get it!
